

Dear Love,

If you will forgive an e-mail rather than a more appropriate letter, I do want to thank you for entertaining us all so well last week.

It was kind of you to come over and to take the trouble to arrive in perfect costume. Few of the team – me included as you know (!) – realised who you were, assuming that you were part of the Orient Express.

What greater compliment could there be?

As you know, you are the most impressive “magician” I have had the good fortune to meet and certainly the warmest and most genuine.

I sincerely hope to see you again in the future.

Finally, I would like to wish you a very Happy Christmas and a mystical and entertaining New Year.

With kind regards,

Charles
